

PARTNER

DANIELLE EPSTEIN-DAY

depstein@sadis.com

New York: 212.573.8416

Danielle Epstein-Day concentrates her practice in real estate, finance, corporate and leasing. She represents a wide range of clients, including real estate owners, investors, developers, buyers and sellers, landlords and tenants, and lenders and borrowers in a variety of commercial, financial and real estate transactions.

Danielle handles many types of real estate transactions, including sales and purchases, and leasing of office and commercial property. She is responsible for preparing and negotiating commercial and residential leases, including shopping centers, office buildings and other store leasing. She represents a range of landlords and tenants, from the independent retail store or business operator to major institutions, including regional and national businesses. Danielle also represents purchasers and developers in the acquisition of substantial commercial buildings, including the negotiation of first mortgage financing.

On the corporate side, Danielle handles a range of corporate legal matters, including shareholder, operating, licensing, and telecommunication agreements and other issues regarding corporate governance.

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate

Real Estate

EDUCATION

J.D., St. John's University School of Law, 1998, Notes and Comments Editor of the St. John's Journal of Legal Commentary

B.A., State University of New York (SUNY) Albany, 1995, cum laude

ADMISSIONS

New York

HONORS & AWARDS

- “Women in Law Awards,” Lawyer Monthly, 2014, 2016
- “Leading Women Lawyers in New York City,” Crain's New York Business, 2018

News

- October 11, 2019 Sadis Wins Hedgeweek US Awards 2019 “Best Law Firm”
- December 19, 2017 Jennifer Rossan and Danielle Epstein-Day Recognized Among Leading Women Lawyers in New York City